EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR APPOINTED BY LUNG ASSOCIATION

Dr. Forrest W. Pitts, president of the Va. Lung Assoc., (VLA), announced recently the appointment of Taylor R. Copping, M.S. as executive director of the voluntary health agency. Mr. Copping, former associate executive director, has served as acting executive director since the death of Woodrow W. Wendt, Ph.D., in Nov. of 1976.

In commenting on the appointment, Dr. Pitts said, "We are very fortunate to have Mr. Copping's experience and knowledge guiding lung association programs. His 25 years in this field of work assures the continuation of Dr. Wendt's high aims for our organization."

Earning his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Richmond, Mr. Copping also attended George Washington University and Louisburg College, where he received an associate science degree. Prior to his college entrance, he served two years in the U.S. Army Air Corps.

Mr. Coppingś career in the health field began with the Richmond City Health Laboratory in 1951 where he served as junior bacteriologist. In 1952, he joined the staff of the Va. Tuberculosis Association (now the Va. Lung Association) as field representative and director of Christmas Seal Campaign. He continued these duties until 1965, when he accepted the position of executive director of the New Mexico Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association.

Returning to Virginia in 1967 as assistant executive director, Mr. Copping also assumed the duties of executive secretary of the Virginia Thoracic Society, medical section of the lung association. He was promoted to associate executive director in 1975.

Mr. Copping is a past president and a fellow of the Virginia Respiratory Disease Conference, an educational organization of professional staff members of the lung association. On the national level, he served as treasurer and member of the governing council of the Congress of Lung Association Staff. This year, he was a member of the American Lung Association's Subcommittee Programs Sessions for the annual meeting in San Francisco in May.

He is married to the former Virginia Brittain and has three children: Taylor R. Jr.; Kathryn E.; and Elizabeth B. Copping.
